DR. YANCEY WYATT AYERS

Washington, May 14.—Dr. Yancey Wyatt Ayers, formerly of the Richmond club, of the Virginia State League, gets the bulk of credit for a victory scored by the Nationals here to-day over Calumet's Chicago White Sox.

The contest went ten innings, and was abundant in thrills and thrills. Successful hits by Gandell and Shanks, incidentally the only ones through the route, sent across the lone tally of the game.

Up to to-day Ayers had been the hard luck twirler of the local club, and only this season he was used as a relief twirler, at times when games had already been decided by erratic work on the part of a predecessor.

In the few games he has started the youngster has been the victim of poor support, and but for this fact probably would have a more creditable record right now. Today he pitched the best ball he has ever shown since he has come into the fold of the White Sox.

From the start, it could be seen that he had everything. His curves broke well and seemed to have Calumet's crowd guessing all the way.

In the first inning Calumet tripled to the scoreboard, after two had been counted down. It was up to outfielder Collins. But his best effort was a short fly to center.

In the second, Hollie connected for a single. Morgan loosed Alcock's grounder, and it looked as if the Sox would score. But "Toke" put on full steam and sent the base down in order.

This juncture until the batter added stop by Miller, followed by a perfect par to second, nabbed the runner.

Ayers had a grand chance to win his own game with men on first and second and with the bases full, but he fell a victim to Scott's shoots, taking the count on strikes.

Things looked bad in the tenth, when an error by Foster, and a stolen base put a visitor on second with but one down. Ping Bodie's best was a fly to right. The situation grew more intense when Alcock was passed. It was up to Russell Blackburn. The proverbs said three and two on the batter added to the excitement. Ayers took a chance, curving the last one over. Blackburn swung wildly and walked back to the plate.

AMERICAN GOLFERS ARE DISAPPOINTING TO FANS

Travers Only One to Make Creditable Showing for St. George Cup.

Sandwich, England, May 14.—Form delayed by the American entrants in the first round of competition for the St. George cup here to-day was hardly up to what had been expected. Many of the players, who will take part in the British amateur golf championship next week, were among the competitors in to-day's contest, and will appear again to-morrow for the final eighteen holes.

Jerome D. Travers returned a score of 77, which tied him with two others for eighth place. He is now regarded by observers here as the only one among the Americans who stands a chance of winning the coveted trophy. In practice the other day he covered the same course in 69, and it is said he repeats that performance to-morrow he may still come out ahead.

D. Hanson, the English player who heads the list with 72, was favored with extraordinary luck. Francis Outmet, the open champion of the United States, who played great interest centered, tured in a card of 80.

H. D. Gillies, of London, the holder of the trophy, covered the course in 75, tying Travers.

Ray Pitches Another No-Hit, No-Run Game

Greensboro, N. C., May 14.—The first no-hit game of the season of the North Carolina Baseball League went to the credit of Carl Ray, of Winston-Salem to-day. Ray, who pitched the first no-hit game in this league last season for Winston-Salem, to-day held Charlotte hitless for nine innings.

The Y. M. C. A. Wins. The Y. M. C. A. defeated the Second Street team by the overwhelming score of 12 to 4 yesterday. Features were the fielding of Sigel and Spigel.

All the local runs came in the fourth inning, when a quartet of hits off Willett, in combination with errors by Bridwell and Borchert, netted four runs. Seaton kept the visitors' hits scattered. VAUGHN RETURNS TO FORM

Chicago, May 14.—Vaughn pitched a no-hit, one-hit game against Brooklyn to-day, the Cubs winning, 5 to 0. The lone hit of the visitors was a scratch affair, McCarthy's swat in the sixth hitting Sweeney on the slide and bounding off. The Cubs scored on the seventh on singles by Williams and Sweeney and Hanson's wild pitch. In the eighth they hit on Kagan for five hits, which netted four additional tallies. REDS TAKE SECOND GAME

Cincinnati, May 14.—Boston could do nothing with the pitching of Benton and Davenport, and Cincinnati took the second game of the series, 6 to 0. Benton and Herzog were benched in the sixth, because of an argument with umpire Eason. Benton grabbed Collins's bunt and apparently touched him out. Eason called him safe, and a near-riot followed. Benton and Herzog pulled at Eason's coat, and a mob of players surrounded the umpire. Benton allowed but three hits in five innings, and Davenport, his successor, was found for only one in four innings. Tyler, for Boston, was ineffective. Score: Cincinnati, 6; Boston, 0.
